MANAGING DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Manager Campbell shared that the 23rd is the Holiday Training Party at noon. He'll be passing out the new safety coats at that time. Manager Campbell brought up the topic of employee gifts. He shared what other road commissions do and legal opinions. Discussion ensued.

Campbell stated that in 2026 there will be 27 pay periods, instead of 26. We will have to adjust salaried employees so as to not exceed their annual salary.

He will have the weighmaster contract for board approval mid-January. Also, Mike is checking on the beaver trapping.

There will be a $17.75 deduction per pay period from employees for the Health Equity health insurance for 2026. This would be a good time if the board wanted to reconsider an HSA contribution, it would be well appreciated.

He met with Huron Pines today regarding the Beaton Road and FR4433 bridges. They cannot contract it out so it's something we would have to do. Both have to be completed in 2026.

The clerk sent out RFP's for auditors and we've received two responses. Campbell will be sending those to the board for review.

He is finalizing the first road user agreement for the solar going in in Caledonia Township.

Campbell explained the basics of the agreement and the payment structure.

Campbell is still working on the ice storm. Working with FEMA was great. Very slow now that it is with the state police.

Campbell informed the board that the new server had been installed and now we have a virtual server in addition to the onsite one. No one has been able to fix our phone issues, so he had the clerk order new ones for the office.

He sent three employees to the John Deere factory today.

Jesse mentioned to the board about having the December 30th meeting a little earlier so that banking can be taken care of.

Moved by Commissioner Wright, Harvey to change the regular board meeting start time on December 30, 2025, to 2:00pm
Motion Carries

PUBLIC COMMENT

None

COMMISSIONER COMMENTS

Commissioner Wright asked if it was too late to do something additional for the employees this year for employee gifts. Discussion ensued.

Moved by Commissioner Wright, Harvey to approve the manager to purchase twenty-six gift cards from the Lincoln Market in the amount of $100.00 each.

Roll call vote: Wright - yes, Harvey – yes, Somers – yes
